SUBJECT:

1956-1959: I worked for various establishments in Washington, D.C., as a translator from Russian into English, such as the Library of Congress, and various other translating Tirms, which abound in Washington, with a solary varying in accordance with the output of translated material, from $500.00, to 1,000.00 per month.

lated material, from $500.00 to 1,000.00 per month.

1959-1963: Ljoined USJPRS on Western Avenue in Washington, D.C., which is a company under contract to the Dept. of State, the Det.

of Defense and on occasion to the Dept. of the Interior (fish hatcheries division). I worked as an analyst and translator, at home most of the time, translating and analyzing articles from newspapers and technical magazines. I was paid $8.00 for 1,000 words for ordinary material, $10.00 for technical and $12.00 for scientific subjects. Also, I was paid by the Dept. of State to be an interpreter for two Soviet delegations at $25.00 per diem plus expenses. I spent five weeks with each of them.

1963-1970: After leaving USJPRS I came to Mexico with my wife and children to avoid the weather extremes of the USA MMAXXIXH and to look into possibilities of profitable investments that could aid me financially after my retirement. My income during this period came from annuities and the moneys lent to my brother-in-law in Cleveland, Ohio, who is a successful real estate man and the owner of an amusement machines business (Cadillac Music Co.) in which I had invested some money previously. I was also connected by mail with a Linguistics Studies firm, Room 212, 419 Boyleston St., Boston 16, Mass. Frequently some of my friends from USJPRS would send me some special articles for translation. I would charge the above organiztions in accordance with the time spent in translating. This amounted to roughly $10,000.00 a year.
